Hi all,

We look forward to seeing you this Friday in Portland. Attached, please find a comprehensive summary of material for discussion at Friday's meeting. We will discuss the Chlorotriazine Urinary Concentration Forward- and Back-Calculator (referenced in the attached report) in more detail during the meeting. The calculator tool is being finalized. We will keep you updated as it is finalized and share that information with you. However, because it is not in its final form, we need to ask that you not forward or share it when it's presented. We appreciate your understanding and look forward to hearing back from you on that point.

Here is the logistical information for the meeting:
